EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

This 3rd edition of the news magazine presents a glimpse of the various academic, cultural, and co-curricular activities organized in the college from September 2025 to February 2026. During this period, the institution witnessed many meaningful events and programmes that enriched the learning environment and strengthened the spirit of cooperation among trainees and teachers. Due to limitations of space and time, it has not been possible to include every programme and activity in this edition. The editorial team sincerely apologizes for any unintentional omissions. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all the teachers, trainees, staff members, and contributors whose constant support, guidance, and cooperation made the publication of this 3rd edition possible. Their collective effort and enthusiasm have greatly contributed to the successful completion of this news magazine. We hope that this magazine will serve as a valuable record of the memorable events and experiences shared during these months.

Warm regards,
Bhushan Chandra Baro
Editor.

A Brief History of CTE, Mangaldoi

The College of Teacher Education (CTE), Mangaldai was established on 2nd October 1973 as Mangaldai B.T. College with the aim of promoting teacher education in the region. The institution was founded through the efforts and support of local educationists, social workers and the people of the area who felt the need for trained teachers in secondary schools. The college was affiliated to Gauhati University in 1977, which helped strengthen its academic activities. In 1995, the institution was granted recognition from the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE). Later, in June 1996, the Government of Assam took over the institution and upgraded it to the status of a College of Teacher Education (CTE) under the Government of India scheme for strengthening teacher education. Situated in Mangaldai town of Darrang district, the college provides a peaceful environment suitable for academic and professional training. Over the years, it has developed various facilities such as classrooms, a library, ICT facilities and other academic resources to support teacher education. At present, the college offers the two-year B.Ed. programme and continues to play an important role in preparing trained and competent teachers for the education system of Assam. The college proudly celebrated its Golden Jubilee in 2023, marking 50 years of dedicated service in the field of teacher education and its significant contribution to the development of education in the region. Recently on 10th of February 2026 the 4 years Integrated Teacher Education programme is offered by NCTE in collaboration with Sipajhar College. The 4 years BA B.Ed. course under ITEP programme will start from the session of 2026-2027.

Morning Assembly

The morning assembly of the college starts at 10:00 a.m. and continues for about 15 minutes. Before the assembly begins, the trainees participate in the cleaning of the college campus, which helps to maintain cleanliness and develop a sense of responsibility and cooperation among the trainees. The assembly begins with Dhyān (meditation), which helps the trainees to calm their minds and improve concentration. This is followed by a prayer, creating a peaceful and positive atmosphere for the day's academic activities. After the prayer, the trainees take an oath to remind themselves of their duties, values, and responsibilities as future teachers. Then warm-up exercises are performed to energize the body and promote physical well-being. At the end of the assembly, the Rashtriya Sangeet (National Anthem) is sung. However, on Wednesdays and Saturdays, Jatiya Sangeet (state song) is performed instead of the National Anthem. The morning assembly is conducted under the supervision of Rupshikh Deka, Lecturer, who serves as the in-charge of the Morning Assembly. The assembly plays an important role in building discipline, unity, and moral values among the trainees. (National Anthem) is sung. ## Uniform & Traditional Attire

Students are required to follow the prescribed dress code of the college. Traditional attire is to be worn on Wednesdays, while formal dress is required on Saturdays. On all the remaining working days, students must wear the prescribed college uniform. This dress code helps maintain discipline, unity, and a sense of cultural identity among the students.

College Library

The library of College of Teacher Education, Mangaldai provides essential learning resources for teacher trainees and faculty members. It has a library-cum-reading room where students can study quietly and consult different academic materials. Main features of the library: Total books: about 5,452, Reference books (encyclopedias, dictionaries, reports, etc.): about 128 Journals subscribed: around 5 educational journals Magazine: India Today. Separate reading room facility for students. Books mainly related to education, pedagogy, and general subjects helpful for B.Ed. trainees. CTE Mangaldai. The library supports teaching, learning, and research activities and helps student-teachers gain knowledge about educational theories, teaching methods, and current developments in education. The present assistant librarian is Trishna Deka.

ICT

The College of Teacher Education, Mangaldai has ICT facilities to support teaching-learning and digital activities. ICT resources such as computers, internet facilities, projector, and other digital tools are used to enhance the learning process and develop technological skills among the trainees. The ICT section of the college is in charge of Dr. Swapna Narzary, Lecturer, who supervises and manages the use of ICT facilities for academic purposes.

Social Service

The Social Service activities of the Orientation Programme were conducted under the leadership of Secretary of Social Service, Nosiur Rahman and Assistant Secretary, Rajib Bora every Saturday. They actively coordinated and guided the trainees in carrying out various social service initiatives, encouraging a spirit of cooperation, responsibility, and community service among the participants.

Kitchen Garden

A kitchen garden is a type of garden that is specially designed to provide fresh produce for the kitchen making it easy to access and harvest fresh ingredients. The trainees of our college have also created a beautiful kitchen garden on the college premises. The vegetables grown there are eggplant, bottle gourd, ridge gourd, sponge gourd, papaya, banana tree, etc. This kitchen garden is looked after by all the trainees of the college, especially on Saturdays every week during social service periods. An earthworm compost preparation is also arranged alongside our kitchen garden. Earthworm compost produced here is applied to kitchen gardens and other gardens from time to time. Our teachers and trainees are already enjoying the harvest vegetables of this kitchen garden.

Flower Garden

A flower garden is a feast for the eyes. It is a vibrant and dynamic space that brings joy, serenity and beauty to our lives, where colors, textures and scents come together to create a truly immersive experience. Our college also has flower gardens in our college premises. There are mainly three flower gardens, among which two are made by two previous batches and one is near the 'Swahid Bedi'. In these flower gardens, there are various seasonal and non-seasonal flowers and evergreen plants which are beautifully growing healthy. Among them the names of some flowering plants are Marigold, Rose, Salvia, Hibiscus, Poinsettia, Agelia, etc. All these flowers are cared for by the teachers, trainees, staff, everyone of the college. Recently, on 4th January, all the trainees of the college planted one seasonal flower and cleaned each garden, in which our lecturer Minakshi Patgiri ma'am and Dr. Swapna Narzary ma'am also participated in this event. These beautiful blooming flowers have greatly enhanced the beauty of our college.

Recreational Spot

The College of Teacher Education, Mangaldai has a small recreational spot inside the campus. There is a pond where a boat is available, which adds beauty and provides a peaceful environment. The area around the pond is calm and pleasant, making it a nice place for trainees to relax during their free time. Trainees and teachers can spend some leisure moments there and enjoy the natural surroundings. The pond and boat also enhance the aesthetic value of the college campus and create a refreshing atmosphere for everyone.

Plantation

A plantation programme was organised at the campus of College of Teacher Education (CTE) Mangaldai to promote environmental awareness. The Principal, professors, lecturers, trainees and staff members actively participated in the programme. Several saplings were planted in different parts of the campus. The activity encouraged everyone to understand the importance of trees and environmental protection. The programme concluded with a pledge to take care of the planted saplings and to work towards a greener and cleaner environment.

A Thanks Giving Note

On behalf of the Literary Secretary and Assistant Literary Secretary, we express our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who contributed to the successful publication of this News Magazine (3rd Edition: September 2025 – February 2026) of CTE, Mangaldai. We sincerely thank our respected Principal, professors, lecturers and staff members for their constant encouragement, guidance and support throughout the preparation of this magazine. Their inspiration played an important role in bringing this publication to completion. We also extend our appreciation to all the trainees who actively contributed by providing reports, articles and necessary information about various events and activities. Their cooperation helped us document the important moments of our college. We are equally grateful to everyone who supported us directly or indirectly in preparing and compiling this edition. Without their help, this effort would not have been possible. Once again, we thank all those who have been a part of this collective effort.
